

Introducing a new prayer practice for anyone who hungers to know God better.

"Sybil presented this praying technique in a workshop at our church and again to a women's study/prayer group. A short time after following Sybil's presentations, I decided to use the technique at a half-day silent retreat for Christian women. I truly felt I was connecting with God . . . I am amazed how relaxing, cleansing and refreshing to my body, mind and spirit the practice is."

—LINDA NELSON, CALVARY EPISCOPAL CHURCH

"This is the most invigorating and enabling book about prayer that I have seen in years! Wry, funny, accessible, wise beyond all appearances, and deeply spiritual . . ."

—PHYLLIS TICKLE, COMPILER, THE DIVINE HOURS

Praying in Color: Drawing a New Path to God
Sybil MacBeth
ISBN: 978-1-55725-512-9
Paperback, 112 pages, $16.95

Praying in Color is ideal for:

- Intergenerational Education Classes
- Women's Meetings
- Prayer Workshops
- Vacation Bible School and Summer Camp
- Staff Retreats on Prayer
- Summer Sunday School Classes
- Wednesday Night Church-wide Programs
- Senior Citizens Activity
- Youth Confirmation Retreats
- Men's Prayer Groups
- Prayer Therapy During Convalescence
- Kindergarten and Children's Prayer Training
- Homeschooling, grades K-12

Sybil MacBeth is a mathematics instructor, a dancer, and the wife of an Episcopal priest in Memphis, Tennessee. She leads workshops across the U.S. on Praying in Color.

Call for quantity discounts and find out how you can get an instructional DVD for leading your own workshop!

Call 1-800-451-5006 today! • Paraclete Press • www.paracletepress.com